Dear Ms. Lewen:

I am an inmate on death row. I am writing because I wish to thank you and everyone else who provided care packages for us. May God bless all of you for caring about prisoners.

In this unit of death row there are some minor inconveniences due to precautions being taken to reduce the chances of anyone getting COVID-19. However, we continue to enjoy more than a few privileges.

Some of us were once scoundrels, but we received God's amazing grace when we accepted Jesus Christ as our Lord and Savior. Because we've been "born again", we believe we're saved and we anticipate going to heaven after we die. Until then, we will continue to seek to please him with our lives by observing his teachings, including his principle known as the Golden Rule: "Do to others what you would have them do to you" (Matthew 7:12)

Thank you again for caring. I give my permission for this letter to be publicized.

Sincerely,
Steve Livaditis
