Dear Prison University Project,
Mt. Carmel College

Hi my name is Christopher Moore and I am housed at San Quentin Badger unit. First off I want to tell you guys, thank you for all your support! It's an blessing to have people out there that don't know you, but have your back during these hardtimes.

I'm a father of six, five boys & one daughter with my fiancé Kristen. My family is out there in need for me to be at home with them. I know its hard for her to deal with the kids alone. The last two children we have are ages 2's and 7 years old. So I no she have her hands full without my help.

I've been incarcerated for 16 months without any write ups (15's) While being incarcerated, I've

Been doing my and everything in my power to get home to my family as soon as possible. I Signed up for programs like Options Recovery Services and The Making Time Count program that I finished. I also work as a porter to help keep Badger clean and to help feed dinner.
I was also chosen to be apart of the H.F.M, Healthcare facilities Maintenance Crew for the Badger unit.

We're all in here stressing and worried about our selfs, family and love ones, and can't forget about the world!! We pray that things get better in here and out there for everyone!

Thank You guys for the Support and the gift!! May God Bless us all!!

Much Love & Respect Christopher Moore #BL-1461
p.s Please share my letter ☺

I thanked the Warden also
